Headline:
Fine with sunny spells, turning cloudier on Bank Holiday Monday.

Today:
After a cloudy start, the cloud will gradually break and thin to leave a dry day with plenty of sunny intervals. Feeling warm in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Remaining dry into the evening with some clear spells. Overnight, cloud will gradually thicken with the odd spot of light rain or drizzle possible in the east by dawn. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Monday:
Mostly rather cloudy but dry for the Bank Holiday with a few brighter spells developing in the afternoon. Generally feeling cooler under the cloud. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Remaining dry and fine with some sunny spells and variable cloud throughout the period. Feeling pleasant in the sunshine, but cool under the cloud.
